Welcome you to a talk by the author of

Finding Banks:

A Honley house, a family business & a lost community

Published by Honley Civic Society in 2020, 'Finding Banks' tells the story of one small part of our village.

Angela Marshall will speak about how the book came into being through a series of remarkable chances, before introducing you to some of Honley's past residents.

Thursday June 30th at 7pm at HONLEY LIBRARY

Light refreshments will be available.
There are no restrictions on numbers but space is limited. Whilst we will try to allow people to sit apart, we also ask for everyone to respect the feelings of others.

The event is free but donations to FoHL are welcome
